F

FORUM

Revista Departamento de Ciencia Política

Evaluation

Article Title:

Conflict of Interests: State whether there is any conflict of interests regarding the evaluated paper.

Subject Relevance: Scientific relevance of the studied subject according to the production or improvement of knowledge.

Scientific Contribution and Originality: Contribution of the article to the state of the addressed subject.

Writing and Text Coherence: Regarding how the article presents and develops the objectives; how it develops the arguments, justifies the conclusions, and, if applicable, employs empirical evidence

Methodology: Appropriate employment of the methodology to obtain data, according to the research's objectives. If it is an analysis article, does it present a logical argumentative sequence?

Bibliography: Is it pertinent, sufficient, and adequate? Are citations properly made?

According to your evaluation the article is:
Excellent _____
Good _____
Acceptable _____

Indicate the state of the evaluated article:
Accepted for publication _____
Accepted with changes _____
Rejected _____

Recommendations for authors:

Evaluation	Quantitative assessment (5,0 and 0,0 are the highest and lowest scores, respectively)
Subject Relevance
Scientific Contribution and Originality
Writing and Text Coherence
Methodology
Bibliography
Title
Abstract
Keywords
Total

Reviewer's information
The evaluation process is carried out anonymously. However, we ask you to update the following information according to the requirements of the national indexer Minciencias-Publlindex and to international indexers

Name
Nationality
Country of Birth
Institutional Affiliation
Last Degree Obtained (specify discipline and university)
Publications in journals with ISSN in the last two years
h-Index
ORCID
ID number; Passport or another
Email		